

Karori Rifle Club

Dick Travis V.C. Trophy

Sgt. R. C. Travis
V.C., D.C.M., M.M., Croix de Guerre (For.)

Entries are available for the sixth Dick Travis VC National .303 Target Rifle Competition.

Once again, this will be a national competition for .303 rifles in target configuration. Hosted by the Karori Rifle Club, it will be held at the historic Trentham Rifle Range over the weekend 18/19 March 2017. Seven matches will be shot over 300, 500, 600 and 800 yards.

Some basic accommodation is available as well as tent and camping sites. There are motels close by.

Entry conditions and costs are available now and can be downloaded from the Karori Rifle Club website <https://karoririfleclub.co.nz/dtvc/dick-travis-vc-2017/> or email the Match Director, Duncan McKee at le303@xtra.co.nz

This competition will be the sixth WW1 commemorative shoot of this type that is a part of the Wellington Rifle Association program. It is held annually every March. The aim is to provide a venue and occasion for competitive use of accurised historic .303 rifles.
